WHAT IS THE APA-ABA YOUTH POULTRY CLUB?

The APA-ABA Youth Club is here to help promote youth who love raising & showing poultry. We offer an additional unique educational program called the A.C.E. Program for members.
(Activities, Competition, Education)

Through this program, we offer the youth members across the country a unique educational opportunity to learn to breed, raise and show healthy poultry at fairs and sanctioned poultry shows. We encourage record keeping, community service & public speaking.

The members that participate in the ACE program have the opportunity to gain knowledge and work their way through four levels or steps of achievement by keeping a specific predesigned record book. Once all steps are completed a member may enter a program designed to help them become licensed/sanctioned poultry judges.

As each member completes their individual level notebook that are given a patch for their show coat and certificate recognizing their achievement.

Sponsors that would like to view these record books may request a copy from our national office.

HOW WILL YOUR SUPPORT HELP?

Your support of this program will benefit all of our young members across the country.

As many of our members and their parents have stated, "I wish I had known about this program long ago".

Your support will help us to promote this educational program through advertising and to keep our website active.

It will insure we are able to continue publishing our large educational newsletter for each and every member of the youth program. It will also help financially support our volunteer youth leaders as they work with their local members participating in the ACE program.

Thank you for your support.
